Subject: FYI: Communications materials for USGCRP Climate Science Report
Attachments: NCA4 Comms docs_2017.10.18.pdf

Bob, Bruce, Jennifer:

Attached are the communications materials for the upcoming release of the final Climate Science Special Report (considered to be Volume I of the National Climate Assessment) and the public review draft of the impacts section of the NCA. Earlier today I provided these materials to Carolyn Hubbard, Megan Maguire, and Maggie Sauerhage.

The target date for release of the two NCA volumes is November 3, although that may change.

We (EPA) would be expected to respond to questions that apply to EPA, but not those related to the content of the reports. Those are expected to be referred to USGCRP.

This is a heads-up only, and does not request any actions or response, although I would be glad to respond to any questions you might have on either of these reports.

Andy
